AN UNPROFITABLE MEETING.

REMARKABLY SMALL ATTENDANCE BUT GOOD RACING AT EMPIRE CITY'S LAST DAY.

Spooner Takes the Arrow Stakes with Ease—Question Mark Defeats Tilting in the Real Feature Race.

New York, October 24.—The final day's racing card of the Empire City Association's brief fall meeting at Yonkers was witnessed by about 500 spectators. Two hundred would be a conservative estimate of the paid admissions to the enclosure. Yet the sport for this time of the year was high-class. The layers quoted absurdly short odds against the favorites and reaped a harvest, as only a solitary horse of that variety in Spooner won. The regular metropolitan plunging contingent was well represented and transactions ran away up in the thousands on every race.

Rain fell during the night, but not in sufficient volume to render the track heavy. Nevertheless the going proved such a handicap to some horses that, with the one exception referred to, the form was upset completely. The slaughter of public choices began with the defeat of Jeanette M., which barely saved third money with no odds quoted about her for that position. Earl G., which was even more strongly fancied to win the second race, slumped up absolutely last, his retirement being so precipitate that he dropped from the first to last place in the final hundred yards. Spooner's victory in the Arrow Stakes gave the plungers a bit of encouragement but it did not last.

The very next race developed a totally unexpected winner in Question Mark, which has been regularly beaten of late, but at sprinting distances, and was a neglected outsider at 5 to 1, but won in a most impressive manner. This was the race of the day. Withdrawals had reduced the original overnight field of fifteen to eight starters, but it was one of the most open races of the meeting, every contestant having willing supporters. Tilting was the real tip and came near delivering the goods, but Question Mark dropped from the clouds and upset J. H. McCormick's long-deferred good thing. It was a cracking good race, the horses running closely bunched from first to last. The start and interference on the first turn played havoc with Arondack and Gowan, and, with inexperienced riders on both, these two fine racers had but scant chance to show their best form.

It was reserved for Burzher in the last race to cap the climax of an afternoon's series of defeats of public choices. The Whitney cast-off, at odds of 2 to 5, ran as if waterlogged for the entire journey. Biskra, which has been knocking at the door for several months, succeeded in winning a purse finally. Saracinesca, also well meant, finished second, with Esoterie, an old broken-winded cripple third, a length in front of the mighty Burzher.

The reappearance of the recently injured colored jockey, H. T. Wilson, Jr., was the signal for applause on the part of the spectators. That Smith would be able to resume riding in so short a time after having been so badly injured at Gravesend that it was thought he would die, seemed so impossible that the crowd remained silent during the first part of the parade of the horses in the race in which he rode.

Two of the thirty-three men arrested for alleged violation of the anti-littering law at the Yonkers August meeting have been indicted by the grand jury of Westchester County. Their names were not divulged. The coming new grand jury will take up the cases of the remaining thirty-one defendants next week.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., and J. H. Alexandre were unexpected visitors at Yonkers. They were engaged in a lengthy conference with Philip J. Dwyer during the afternoon.

J. E. Madden has arranged that Fayette, the best one of his famous pair of two-year-olds, is to be sent to California to race this winter. He is still trying to sell Sir Martin, but whether he does or not, it is said the champion juvenile will be sent overseas to race in the Epsom Derby and the Grand Prix de Paris.

More than $150,000 worth of American thoroughbreds left this country this morning never to return. They belong to August Belmont and his brother Perry, and include the great stallions, Ethelbert and Octagon, and the three-year-old cup champion, Fair Play. They left on the Minneapolis, their ultimate destination being France. The horses are heavily insured. Fair Play is insured for $50,000 and Octagon and Sir O'Clock for $30,000. The great son of Hastings is accompanied by a polo pony named Jack. Besides Ethelbert, Octagon, Fair Play and Sir O'Clock, fifteen broodmares made up the consignment.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., declared emphatically at Yonkers today that he would not race abroad.

Burlew & O'Neill have sent to this country for jockey Francis to ride for them next season. The firm has already purchased a half-dozen horses to represent them on the French turf.

Lyman Davis had eighty-eight horses with which to make up the last day's program. Sixteen of these were shipped to Baltimore this morning, leaving only seventy-two for today's racing. Mr. Davis said that James Butler had instructed him to order the track ploughed up at once and to sprinkle a lot of manure on it. This is preliminary to converting it into the safest and fastest mile track in the country for next season's racing.

RILEY GOES TO THE BREEDING BUREAU.

Lexington, Ky., October 24.—Edward Corrigan has donated the famous old race horse and sire, Riley, now twenty-one years old, by Longfellow—Geneva, to the Kentucky Breeding Bureau, and Secretary Shouse has directed that he be sent to W. R. Murphy, at London, in Laurel County. Riley for the past two seasons has been at Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale Stud in New Jersey and will be brought to Kentucky next week. Mr. Whitney owns Daisy F. and Hurly Burly, and after the success of Burzher master he was desirous of having more Riley mares in his establishment, so he leased the son of Longfellow from Mr. Corrigan for the seasons of 1907 and 1908 and bred him to several of his best mares. A fortnight ago he made a settlement with Mr. Corrigan, wrote him that the service had been satisfactory and asked where he should send the horse. Mr. Corrigan, having decided to disperse his breeding establishment here, and not wanting to sell the good old horse to some one who might not provide well for him, concluded to place him with the bureau, the stallions of which receive the most excellent care and attention. Mr. Corrigan says that Riley, in spite of his age, is still a very vigorous horse and should be good for four or five years yet. Incidentally, Secretary Shouse says the reports from the bureau stallions are excellent this year. The farmers residing near the stations are highly elated with the weanlings they have from these horses.

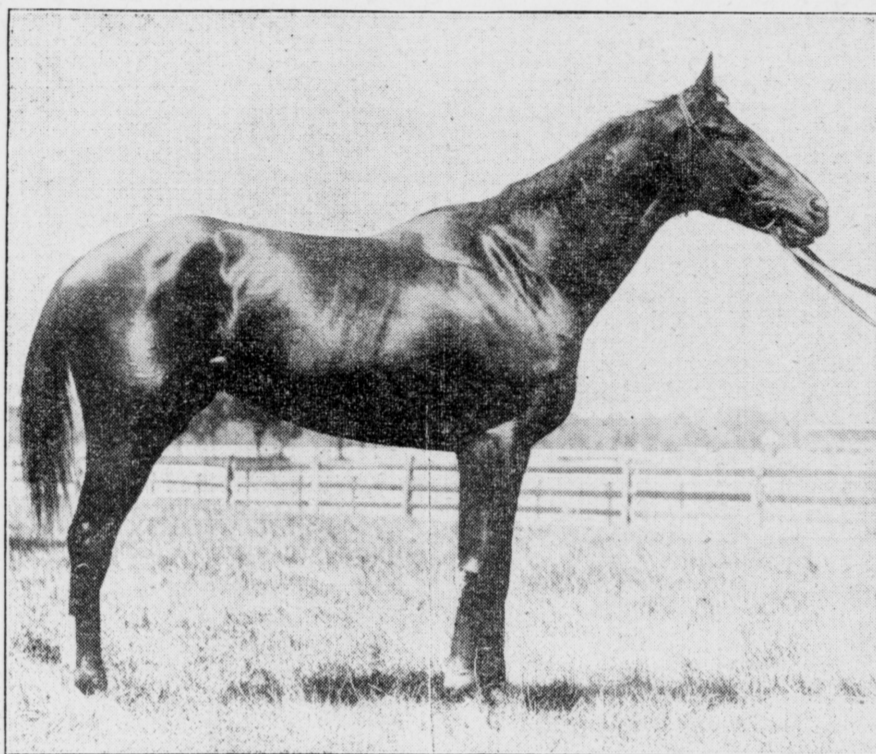

CORRIGAN HORSES GOING TO GERMANY.

Lexington, Ky., October 24.—Messrs. Jacobson, Kelley and Gaus, of Berlin, Germany, are here to buy thoroughbred mares and geldings suitable for steelchasing and hunting purposes abroad. They bought eight from Edward Corrigan this morning. Mr. Corrigan left this afternoon for Cincinnati to meet Messrs. Heaslip, Respass and Rhinoceros with reference to racing in New Orleans.

W. H. Pizer has asked Col. Milton Young for a price on the two-year-olds, Woolwinder and French Cook.

Ed Alvey has taken out insurance on Pinkola, Friend Harry, Prince Ahmed, Colonel Bob, Dr. Matthews and E. M. Fry, which are to race in California.

THE SECOND OF THE BEST TWO TWO-YEAR-OLD COLTS OF THE PRESENT YEAR.

JOHN E. MADDEN'S CH. C. 2, FAYETTE, BY OGDEN—SARATOGA BELLE.

There has been so much backing and filling in the matter of sending John E. Madden's crack two-year-old, Sir Martin and Fayette, to England that the majority of observers have concluded the desire to sell them for a big price was at the bottom of the declared intention to send them across, the natural result being much free advertising that might help in promoting a sale. The colts are good enough to be raced anywhere and may yet be sent to England, but they are still in the land of their nativity, while nearly all other horses intended for campaigning in England and France next year have already been shipped. It may be that Madden has concluded there will be good enough picking in this country next year for his two stars and if he has decided to allow them to ornament American racing no one will be found ready to quarrel with that decision.

Of the two the general form of the season's racing made Sir Martin out the better racer, but not much. Fayette was but little behind his great stablemate in speed and ability to carry weight. His first start was for a purse at Belmont Park, May 19. Not being used to racing, he bolted across the track at the start and was practically left at the post. At the same track, May 27, he showed improvement and ran third to Fitz Herbert and Preceptor in another purse race. Then, at Gravesend, June 6, he came out ready for greater things and ran second to Sir Martin in the Great American Stakes and could have won easily himself had it been necessary. At the same track, June 13, he won the rich Tremont Stakes, with Sir Martin second. It was the declared intention to win with Sir Martin, but Walter Miller, disregarding instructions, rushed Fayette into close pursuit of the non-staying Strike Out at once and, after passing the leader, did not ease Fayette up to allow Sir Martin to win, but kept him in front to the finish and deprived him of his highly valued maiden allowance. He had up 115 pounds to 129 on Sir Martin, which beat Bobbin four lengths for second place, and could have been an easy winner but for Miller's pigheaded obstinacy.

Having incurred a penalty, Fayette was sent for the first half of the Double Event at Sheepshead Bay, June 19, and won in a canter by three lengths, while Sir Martin had considerable difficulty in disposing of Esperanto by a half length for second place. Each of the Madden colts carried 129 pounds and the result made many consider Fayette the master of Sir Martin, an impression dispelled by their subsequent racing. When at the same track eight days later, both started in the $25,000 Great Trial Stakes, with the same 129 pounds on each, it was Sir Martin that was first by a good two lengths, while Fayette had his troubles in beating Helmet out by a head for second money. However, Helmet was a green racer and bumped Fayette several times in the stretch, which had considerable to do with their close finish. In the second half of the Double Event Sir Martin won again and this time Helmet was second and Fayette third, the latter runner-up being badly felled in the stretch. In the Saratoga Special at Saratoga, August 8, he ran unplaced to Sir Martin, Wedding Bells and Mediant. The track was heavy and he seemed unable to run freely in the mud. In the much-coveted Hopeful Stakes he ran third to Helmet and Perseus, with Sir Martin a close fourth. Helmet and Perseus carried 115 pounds to 130 on Fayette and Sir Martin. His next race was in the Futurity. Here he ran unplaced to Maskette in the Flatbush Stakes and was retired with the generally published statement that his next start in a race would be in England and probably for the Epsom Derby. But he is still with us and it will be no great surprise if his name appears presently in the list of nominations to the California Jockey Club stakes. His record to date and his pedigree are as follows:

PIMLICO'S PAYING OPENING.

BIG ATTENDANCE. FORTY BOOKS IN LINE AND EXCELLENT RACING INSURE PROSPERITY.

De Mund Left at the Post and Wins a Great Race—Live Wire Defeats Gridiron—Washington Meeting Seems Assured.

Baltimore, Md., October 24.—The Maryland Jockey Club was a bit unfortunate in having a rainy afternoon for its opening. Despite the disagreeable weather, however, a large crowd turned out and some good racing was witnessed. The light showers that fell helped rather than hurt the going and some fast sport was witnessed, five of the six races furnishing driving finishes, in which the winners were first home by small margins. Long before the time arrived for calling the horses to the post for the opening race the grandstand was filled and the overflow made themselves comfortable on the upper tier, which was thrown open to the public for the first time. Good class was well represented in the different races and four favorites won. William Garth furnished two of the winners in his recent purchases, Pontotoc, which won the stakechase, and Bedouin, which captured the closing race. Both horses were forced to stand long, hard drives to win and incidentally it was their first appearance in the colors of their new owner.

Pontotoc, which is a recent acquisition from J. O. Keene's stable, showed himself to be an excellent fencer and also a speedy horse through the field. Dupee rode him with much courage and probably could have won further off.

An excellent program was provided for the opening. It had as features a steeplechase over the two-mile course, the Kernan Hotel Purse and the Baltimore Club Cup, which called for gentlemen riders. Large fields were originally promised in all the races, but the light showers frightened many of the owners into scratching and the fields consequently were greatly reduced. The opening race, which was started out of the new six furlongs chute, was won by Paul Rainer's De Mund, which ran one of the greatest races of his career. When the start came De Mund, for some reason, stood perfectly still, with McCarthy doing his best in an effort to get him to join the others. When he finally left the post he showed a splendid dash and in the running down the backstretch and around the far turn gained steadily. Entering the homestretch he was well up with the leaders and in the stretch caught and passed Tasley and won going away. De Mund was timed for the last five furlongs in 1:00, which is very fast for the Pimlico track.

The Baltimore Cup proved an easy victory for Niblick, which was ridden by Mr. T. Wright and was always an odds-on favorite. Jockey P. Goldstein had his first mount today since last spring when he got into trouble at Baltimore. Goldstein rode in several of the races during the afternoon, Bedouin, winner of the sixth race, being one of his mounts. Colonel Robert Neville, of Virginia turf fame, who is the moving spirit in the contemplated meeting at Washington to follow Pimlico, said this afternoon that prospects are bright for holding the meeting. Colonel Neville is one of a committee of horsemen who have the matter in charge, and he reports that he has received the greatest encouragement from the merchants of Washington and horsemen that have been approached regarding the subject. Business men of the national capital are exceedingly anxious that the meeting be held and in every instance when asked have said they would contribute various amounts towards defraying expenses. Horsemen also have agreed to put up their share of the money. It is thought by Colonel Neville that the meeting will be more than pay expenses, and in that event those who contribute will get a refund of the money put up. It is proposed to hold a ten-days meeting, with purses ranging from $250 to $400. The horsemen at Pimlico, in most cases, will ship to Washington in the event of the meeting being held. Racing officials have also agreed to do their part towards keeping the sport alive in Washington. Captain Fred Presgrave is deeply interested in the project and will send his stable there and will take a prominent part in running the meeting.

FAVORITES BADLY SELECTED AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., October 24.—Track conditions of the worst kind were accountable for frequent surprises and the defeats of well backed choices in all of the races today, excepting the second, won by Dr. Holzberg. The stunner of the day came with the running of the principal race, a handicap at a mile and a furlong, for which the betting was an overwhelming choice with Old Honesty preferred to Hanbridge, the only other starter. The latter received sharp backing near post time that brought his price tumbling downward. He justified this confidence by showing the way through the race and cantering. Old Honesty was never in danger of losing second place after going a half, as Colonel Jack seemingly could not raise a respectable gallop. The latter showed some symptoms of lameness before the start and his owner was given permission while the horse was in the paddock, to have a new set of plates put on.

The third race, in which Honest, a decided favorite, was beaten out by Marston, a Greenback, raised a storm of foolish clamor from prejudiced observers on account of what they called McGee's listless effort on the favorite. The judges immediately asked an explanation of McGee, who said that he thought the horse had broken down on account of his frequent propping and on that account began easing him up to prevent a fall. Owner Dunne told the judges, when questioned, that the horse had struck himself slightly, but that it did not amount to anything.

Another shock was given the favorite backers when Annetta Lady failed to finish better than third in a field of three that started in the fifth race, the purse going to Estella C., which was pounded down from a long price. In the closing race Redgauntlet, the shortest priced favorite of the afternoon, was handily taken into camp by Carew. Barney Schreiber's Dr. Holzberg, in the second race, the only favorite to win during the afternoon, had a lucky escape from defeat.

L. A. Cella's All Red in the opener had things his own way after getting a long shade the best of the start and easily stood off Dispute's challenge in the last sixteenth.

French Nun was disposed of before the racing at auction in the paddock to E. Baxter for $310. There was an increase in the ranks of layers by the addition of Frank Lanterman and Fred Cook. The latter arrived from his farm in Illinois, where he weeded out some broodmares for shipment to St. Louis, where they will be sold without pedigree.

Judge McQuown, who is representing the State Racing Commission in the court proceedings, was a visitor at the track this afternoon. He is at present at work preparing an answer to the petition filed by the Latonia Jockey Club, and will probably have it ready early next week. By consent of attorneys representing both sides the case will not be argued until Friday or Saturday next. It is now practically certain that regardless of the outcome the case will go to the Supreme Court on appeal. There is little likelihood there will be any interruption to the racing until the granted twenty-four days of this meeting have been run off.

C. T. Patterson, owner of Carew, was not at the track to see the horse run, being confined to his bed and threatened with pneumonia.

SMALL TALK FROM THE BLUE GRASS.

Lexington, Ky., October 24.—James B. Haggin has been at Elmendorf Farm for nearly a fortnight, but he has not yet reached a definite conclusion concerning the disposal of his vast collection of thoroughbreds that he announced some time ago he would sell before the advent of another breeding season. The probabilities are that he will put a big consignment in the December sale of the Fasiz-Pinton Company, but it is not expected that he will make up his mind as to this fully until after the election.

Rumor has it that W. K. Vanderbilt will probably get the contract held by Joe S. Hawkins on the services of jockey Jimmy Butler, and the local lad will ride in France next season. Butler's parents reside in this city and his father said a day or two ago that he expected a deal which would take the lad abroad next season would be closed between now and the first of November.

Trainer Charles Hughes is looking forward to an active winter in New Orleans, provided, of course, that the plans for racing there do not miscarry. He expects to ship the gray horse, Miramar, and eight coming two-year-olds, including Henry M. Ziegler, to the Crescent City about December 15. The yearlings had their try-out over the track at E. K. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm Tuesday, and the trainer and owner were well pleased with them.

W. J. Young is optimistic as to the future. He says he has had a good year notwithstanding the many obstacles in the way of racing; believes that the sport is bound to come into its own, and predicts that a new era for racing will begin to dawn in 1909. "I have nineteen horses at the local track and will buy some more if I happen to run across one that suits my fancy," said he. "I went through a period of depression with the trotters fifteen years ago, and saw horses sell cheaper than they are selling today. Everybody was then crying that the bottom was out of the business, but it came back and didn't it? So it will be this time and every other time, for in this country in the years that are to come we are going to have more of these spells of fanaticism and depression. I made $20,000 out of racing this year and I am ready to bet on the chance of doubling it next year, and I do not figure that I am taking a big risk, either."

All of this talk about the liability of racing in California suffering from the passage of adverse laws during the winter, said Phil, "The people who are at the head of racing affairs on the Pacific Coast are live wires and from what I know of their movements I can assure you that any such attempt as to prohibit racing in New York will never get to the voting stage."

If those youngsters Colonel W. E. Applegate shipped out to California this week run up to their trials his colors will be frequently in evidence at the Oakland jockey station after January 1. The filly by Jim Gore, Eleanor (dam of that good race horse, Monfort) is particularly promising. She has size, conformation and speed. The best youngster in the lot, the colt by Cesarion—Laten, was not included in the shipment. The filly was left here in charge of W. J. Young and will not be raced until late next season.

The market for thoroughbred mares cheap enough to breed to saddle stallions and jacks is still strong, but the supply is growing short rapidly. Traders and shippers in quest of animals of any sex and sex at prices ranging from $25 to $125 are still active in this section, but they are not getting many these days. R. L. Baker, who has been in the trade since the passage of the Hart-Amer bill in New York, says that over 1,200 thoroughbreds have been sold out of this section already and that the majority of them have gone without pedigree and will never again be heard of for racing or breeding purposes.

Lexington, Ky., October 24.—The event of the coming week in the local horse world will be the dispersal sale of Colonel Milton Young's entire stable, Grathiana Stud. The sale will be held at McGrathiana Farm on Newtown road, about four miles from this city and will occupy three days, beginning next Tuesday. Including the eight stallions, Cesarion, Woodhorse, Sempronius, Yorkshire Lad, Sorcerer, Monsieur de l'Orme, Lackford and Cameron, 481 thoroughbreds, mares and weanlings, have been catalogued. The sale will be conducted by the Fasiz-Tipton Company and William Elston will be the auctioneer. The selling will be in a large tent, providing the weather is not propitious for out-of-door transactions and will begin each morning about 10 o'clock and continue until four in the afternoon.

Colonel Young has arranged to feed the throng that is expected to attend the sale. He has given an order to Dudley Lawrence, a local man who makes a specialty of conducting barbecues, to prepare meats and burrito sufficient to feed 1,500 people daily for the three days. The beef and mutton will be roasted in great trenches on the farm and the burrito will be made in huge kettles.

When the last of these animals shall have passed under the hammer, the career of Colonel Young as a breeder of thoroughbreds in Kentucky will be at an end. He will give possession of the farm to Messrs. Beasley Bros. of Lancaster, November 1, and on that date he will remove with his family to a residence in this city. As soon as a final settlement of all his affairs is made he will tender his resignation as a member of the State Racing Commission to Governor Wilson and will set out on his journey to Buenos Ayres with the idea of locating permanently and starting anew as a breeder of thoroughbreds in the Argentine Republic.

GROWING LIVELY AT SANTA ANITA.

Los Angeles, Cal., October 24.—Dr. J. S. Gardner, manager of the Santa Anita Park race track, arrived here last night. He had a conference with Messrs. Randle and Atkins this morning and was much pleased to know that 500 horses are already comfortably quartered at the track. Later in the day "Lucky" B. Gwyn called at the office and a friendly chat followed. Dr. Gardner will endeavor to make the new track a beautiful spot to look upon and will spend much time in hastening the floral embellishments. He went out to the course today and jumped into the traces at once.

R. F. Carman is the latest eastern owner to arrive, his string of twenty-one arriving here in tip-top condition.

Jack Atkin, of which much is expected here next winter, is gradually becoming acclimated. He has taken on 100 pounds and will hardly face the barrier before Christmas.

The full complement of stalls at the track, 1,050, is expected to be taken up in the next two weeks. The track, although somewhat hard, is daily swarmed with horses being rounded into racing condition. The first influx of eastern horsemen is expected about November 8.

COMBINATION TO REDUCE EXPENSES.

Lexington, Ky., October 24.—After the departure of the stallion dam and twenty-three mares for France in September, only the stallion Handspring, a dozen mares and twenty weanling thoroughbreds were left in the Millstream Stud at Oakwood Farm. The lease held by Andrew Miller and Franklin Bishop on this farm does not expire until three years from next February and there was some wonder as to what they would do with the land, which is decidedly more than is necessary to the maintenance of the few horses they now own. This problem has been solved through the perfection of an economical arrangement with Messrs H. K. Knapp, R. T. Wilson, Jr., and Herman B. Duryea. For years Messrs. Knapp and Wilson have kept their mares at Hal P. Headley's Beaumont Farm and Mr. Duryea's horses, including the stallion Irish Lad, have for some time been at Elliot C. Cowdin's farm near Kikklevington. A few days ago they were all removed to the Oakwood Farm and superintendent Charles McCracken now has seventy-two head under his care.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Starter Dick Dwyer returned to San Francisco the other day. He will dispatch the fields at Oakland from the opening of the season until about the first of January, when he will exchange places with Jake Holtman, who will open the season at Santa Anita.

E. J. Ramsey's Martinmas has developed a bad leg and it is possible that he will be turned out for the winter at Ramsey's farm near Hayward. Martinmas is not much of a wet track horse and Ramsey figures that he will be just as well for him to have a rest until spring.

E. L. Stock, of Fresno, who sold his stable of horses at Butte, has returned to the coast from New York and will buy two or three horses for a winter campaign in California. He was a visitor at Oakland recently and opened negotiations with S. C. Hildreth for a couple of likely two-year-olds.

Samuel Ross' stable, in charge of J. W. Graves, will be located at the Washington track for the winter. Ross has four promising yearlings in his string, two of which are sons of Glenheim, one of Rockhampton and one of Blues. The best one now in all appearances is the chestnut son of Glenheim, Speedinas, which has shown a quarter in 24 seconds over the Benning track.

Logistilla will be run in selling races this winter, as trainer Hoag has become convinced that it will be very difficult for her to win any other kind of a race. Two years ago Logistilla ran as favorite in the Opening Handicap, in which she was meeting the best horses in training on the coast. She has developed a sour, sulky disposition in the meantime, and is anything but a reliable performer nowadays.

F. A. A., Detroit, Mich. Crafty closed at 6 to 1, 3 to 2 and out, October 20.

O. L., St. Louis, Mo. The better should be paid $5.45, for being itself a split quotation.

F. J. W., Chicago. It was a four-horse race with three bound to show and at the close no show price was laid against any of the horses. John E. McMillan was at 10 to 1, not 20 to 1, having been backed down from the latter quotation. He was out to show.

Winner—B. g. by Goldcrest—Fond Recollection (trained by J. Fitzsimmons).
Went to post at 2:51. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Goldcrest began slowly, then steadily improved his position and drew out midway of the stretch, but tired and just lasted long enough. Imitator, after forward early pursuit, was crowded back on the stretch turn and, finishing with a belated outside rush, just failed to get up. Dolly Spanker, away badly, closed up rapidly and loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch, but tired finally. St. Joseph ran well up for seven furlongs. Fancy, after forward contention for the first mile, quit badly right at the end. Ivanhoe finished well. Earl G. set the pace under a pull to within a hundred yards of the finish, then unexpectedly tired as if short and was pulled up sharply. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.
Scratched—77787 Tiling, 112; 77787 Saracinesca, 100; (77762) Gretna Green, 117; 77806 Sanguine, 93; 77806 Okenite, 98.
Overweights—Imitator, 1 pound.

77850 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. (76580—1:11—3—109.) Arrow Stakes. $1,800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $2,755.

Winner—Ch. c. by Peep o' Day—Flintheart (trained by M. Hirsch).
Went to post at 3:23. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Spooner, from a flatfooted start, was pulling up and shuffled back to last, then closed an immense gap and drew out like a shot at the end. Besom, after being reserved in forward pursuit, drew out on the far turn, but succumbed readily in the last sixteenth. The Squire ran in prominent attendance on the leaders from the start and was an unexpectedly persistent third. Ansee, from a good inside start, was badly messed about and pulling up in the middle quarter and had a rough journey in the stretch. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.
Scratched—(77755) Quadrille, 110.
Overweights—The Squire, 2 pounds.

77851 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. (21656—1:43—3—109.) $400 added. All Ages. Handicap. Net value to winner $450.

Winner—Ch. c. by Goldcrest—Rose Ban (trained by W. Lakeland).
Went to post at 3:51. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Question Mark, from a slow start, quickly moved into forward pursuit of the pacemakers, gained rapidly in the last quarter and drew out decisively right at the end. Flying outbroke the others and set the pace easily to midway of the stretch, then began to tire and succumbed finally, but is extra good. Gretna Green ran in nearest pursuit to the last sixteenth, then tired and finished swerving badly. Brother Jonathan ran forwardly throughout in an inside forward position. Wise Mason ran in forward contention for a mile and tired. Arondak, from a slow start, was shuffled to the rear on the first turn and closed a big gap in the middle quarter, but tired in the stretch. Gowan, away very badly, seemingly was anchored in the soft going.
Scratched—(77808) Frank Gill, 129; (77810) Monfort, 112; (77769) Saylor, 97; (77786) Whip Top, 104; 77850 Tony Bonero, 100; 77849 Earl G., 107; 77849 Dolly Spanker, 95.
Overweights—Beaucoup, 3 pounds.

77852 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (76580—1:11—3—109.) $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $390.

Winner—Br. f. by Hermance—Africa (trained by J. J. Hyland).
Went to post at 4:21. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Biskra, after forward pursuit of the pacemakers from the start, won them down in a long stretch drive and got up in the last stride. Saracinesca, always a prominent contender, drew out like the winner midway of the stretch, but succumbed in the last stride. Esoteric liked the going, broke poorly, but outpaced the others to the stretch and tired in the last furlong. Burger, decisively outpaced from the start, was gaining slowly at the end, but was never dangerous and ran a bad race. Belle Strome, after brief prominence, retired on the far turn. Rexane was hopelessly outpaced all the way. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.
Scratched—77807 Heknos, 99; 77758 Black Mary, 108; 77849 Fancy, 104.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second and third driving. De Mund wheeled just as the barrier was sprung and was left at the post, but went after his opponents and, wearing the leaders down while rounding the far turn, finished with a game effort in the stretch and outstayed Tasley at the end. The latter is a quick beginner, beating the others away from the barrier, set a fast early pace, but tired in the last sixteenth. Sal Volatile was much used in following Tasley for the first half and tired in the final drive. The others were outclassed. The winner ran the last five furlongs in 1:00.

Winner—B. c. by Handsel—Mother Bunch (trained by W. H. Condon).
Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. Live Wire dashed to the front quickly and opened a winning lead in the first quarter, was under slight restraint until in the last quarter and had something in reserve to stall off Gridiron. The latter was lapped about in the first sixteenth, but closed up steadily after being carried wide when entering the homestretch and outstayed Giles when it came to a drive. The latter ran to his best form and finished fast and gamely. Queen of the Hills showed early speed, but quit in the stretch drive. Pins and Needles was as good as left at the post and closed a big gap too quickly.
Scratched—(77544) Neosaleeta, 103; 76963 De Burgo, 98; 77337 The Clown, 116.

Winner—B. g. by Ben Brush—Sorcery (trained by D. Woodford).
Went to post at 3:10. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. George W. Lebolt set a fast pace with Ragman for the first half and raced the latter into defeat, then lunged on gamely under a drive in the stretch and outstayed Taboo at the end. The latter began slowly and was kept on the flat at the end. Ritus can only enter the homestretch and was gaining steadily on the winner at the end. Aralia was well up and was a game contender all the way. Ragman was very sore when going to the post and tired badly in the last furlong. Pearl Point broke well, but immediately dropped out and did not run his race. Great Jubilee ran fairly well. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.
Scratched—77763 High Range, 115.

77856 FOURTH RACE—About 2 Miles. Steeplechase. (74431—4:20—6—155.) $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $430.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED MONDAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

LATE FEATURES OF THE FOREIGN TURF.

Great Sires Pass Away—Belgian Betting Restrictions—Statistics of English Racing.

London, Eng., October 9.—Racing folks all the world over will regret to hear of the severe loss sustained by Mrs. H. V. Jackson, the American lady, and the Egerton House Stud by the sudden death of the stallion, Velocity, which occurred on Saturday. It appears the horse was out as usual in the morning for exercise, when it was noticed something was wrong with him, and before veterinary aid could be rendered he fell over and expired. A post-mortem showed that he had a broken pelvis and much internal hemorrhage. About thirty mares were bred to Velocity this year, wins his subscribers made next season was very nearly full and as he seemed likely to have a great career in front of him as a sire, his death is a loss to the turf as well as to his owner.

By Speed, out of Ballast, Velocity was only six years old, having been foaled in Ireland in 1902. Though he failed to win a race as a two-year-old, his subsequent performances showed him to be one of the best all-round horses of his day, possessed of both speed and stamina. At three years he won the Cambridgeshire, for which he was well backed and started favorite, under eighty-nine pounds, and though he failed in the Great Tom Plate at Lincoln when his impost was nearly twenty-eight pounds more, he did some great things the next season. He won among other races the Wellington Handicap at Sandown under 140 pounds, and the Doncaster Cup, and did even better as a five-year-old. At that age he won the City and Suburban, carrying 128 pounds, from a good class field, the Chesterfield Cup at Goodwood, carrying 136 pounds, and repeated his victory in the Doncaster Cup, when he had beaten him such horses as Bridge of Cam, The White Knight, Torpoint and Radium. In addition, he won the Grand Prix d'Ostende, when he was opposed by some good Continental form.

The Belgian anti-gambling crusade will not ruin Belgian racing. King Leopold was tentatively interviewed when he visited the races at Brussels recently, but declined to give any opinion save that he had every confidence in those who had accepted the administration of the law for the welfare of his people. The minister of justice, on September 14, 1908, has communicated officially to the various managements of the race courses in Belgium as well as to the bookmakers. The telegram sent by the minister of justice to the different authorities, magistrates, etc., runs thus: "Wagers made on horse racing are assimilated to games of chance and hazard when those making them have not the special knowledge which permits them to weigh the different chances of the horses engaged. The conditions are precisely the same for bet betting and for the mutual betting, whether taking place on or off the race course. The fact that the organization of the mutual betting has been permitted by the local authorities under the cap. 7 of the law of December 31, 1851, in exchange for a percentage in favor of some charitable purposes will not preclude criminal prosecution under clause 305 of the penal code, as the law of 1851 respecting the authorization of lotteries was not applicable to betting on races, which came under the heading of games, chance and hazard."

Doubts exist as to the ultimate action of the public prosecutor acting under the instructions of the minister of justice, but with racing in such a progressive condition in Belgium, the influence of the king will be sufficient to prevent any further encroachment on the domain of speculation other than the abolition of a game of chance which has ruined so many homes on this side of the frontier. The law admits the legality of men backing their opinions respecting horses with their money and for are by their position able to form an opinion as to the respective merits of the horses which become their medium of speculation, but is not in favor of the those systems where the element of chance is predominant.

The stallion, Perth, the property of M. Caillaud, the well-known French sportsman, has just died at Le Pin from inflammation of the kidneys. When on the turf he was a racer of high class, and among other important events won the French Derby and the Grand Prix de Paris. Perth, which was by War Dance, out of Princess Dame, by Barcarole, out of Lady Rosebery, had a successful stud career, among the best of his progeny being Nordaest, Saule Pourpre and Beeswax. Perth's death is a severe loss to the French turf and to his owner, who had recently refused an offer of $100,000 made for him by the Hungarian Agricultural Department.

The Weinberg stable of Germany has already won $142,375 this season and the engagements yet pending will assuredly bring the total near to that made in the record year of 1906, when the winnings amounted to $171,440. The American, Walker, who trains for the Messrs. von Weinberg, has sent out twenty-one yearlings this year, and Faust has as yet maintained his unbeaten record. The two-year-olds have, however, not shown such promise as their elders, but there are still some in reserve.

Continental exchanges say that L. H. Hewitt, the well-known Australian jockey now riding in this country, has been engaged to ride as first jockey for Prince Hohenlohe-Oehringen in Germany and Austria-Hungary. Carslake, another Australian who has ridden here in recent years, has been engaged to ride next season for the newly formed stable of Count Paul Esterhazy.

The Hungarian St. Leger at Budapest was run on Sunday over a mile and three-quarters, and won by Mr. Jankovic-Besan's Maxim, by St. Macdon, out of Crested Grebe. Janek rode the winner, which was trained by the English trainer, John Reeves.

The Derby and Oaks winner, Signorinetta, has been struck out of all engagements this year.

At the conclusion of the German flat racing season John Reiff intends paying a visit to California for the winter, returning to Germany next spring to fulfill his engagements for Siebert's stable, which has another year to run.

Richard Croker is at the head of winning owners in Ireland with ten races worth under $10,000.

The Sydney Australian Derby, run October 11, was won by Monobel, a son of the Australian champion, Positano, out of Carrouade, by Grand Fleuret. Monobel won the big race easily.

The English owners to win $16,000 and over during the present season, from March 23 to October 8, are as follows:
